

WWF Charity Place -

Terms and Conditions

1 This event is not being organised or supervised by WWF therefore you agree that WWF, its employees and its agents, accept no liability whatsoever in respect of any injury, illness, death, loss (including loss of enjoyment or possessions), damage, expense, cost or other sum or claim of any descriptions whatsoever in respect of your participation in the event. Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude WWF liability in respect of death or personal injury sustained as a direct result of WWF negligence, breach of statutory duty or fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. You acknowledge that training for and participation in the event involves potentially strenuous physical activity and risk of personal injury. You confirm that, to the best of your knowledge, you are suitable, healthy and fit to take part in the event. You will be taking part in and completing the event at your own risk.

3. You agree to follow all reasonable rules and instructions given by the event organiser, event management company and their authorised representatives. You are responsible for your own actions or inactions. Where these differ from the wishes of the event organiser, neither the organiser, WWF, its employees or agents can be held responsible for loss or damage to personal effects, injury or death.

4. The itinerary may be subject to change by the event organiser should climatic or other unforeseen circumstances deem this necessary, you should refer to the event organiser's terms and conditions for more details.

5. You agree to carry out your fundraising in accordance with our Fundraiser's code of practice:

- I will not use the WWF or any associated logo without first obtaining permission from the WWF and will allow the WWF to approve any materials produced whether printed or online.
- I will tell my sponsors that I am raising money “in aid of” the WWF.
- I will not incur nor am I authorised to incur any cost, claim, loss or liability on behalf of WWF.
- I will contact the WWF before conducting any raffle, lottery or public event, and comply with any guidance, guidelines or insurance and legal requirements issued by the WWF in connection with this kind of event.
- I will obtain approval from WWF before approaching press or celebrities to support my event.
- I will secure the necessary approvals prior to undertaking street collections or collections on private property. House-to-house collections are not permitted.

6. You agree that this event involves pledging to raise a minimum amount in sponsorship and that the sponsorship money will be paid to WWF no later than 8 weeks after the event date. All payments to WWF shall be made via debit or credit card, cheque, bank transfer or via a secure online fundraising page. Please check the specific event webpage at wwf.org.uk/events for the sponsorship pledge level.

7. You agree to pay a registration fee to secure your WWF guaranteed place, which is non-refundable.

8. Any fundraised money collected must be forwarded to WWF and this will be treated as a donation unless sponsors specifically ask for it to be returned to them. WWF is unable to return anonymous donations. You agree that should you, for whatever reason, not take part in the event or the event is cancelled, it is your responsibility to contact your sponsors telling them you are no longer participating in the event, and what will happen to their sponsor money.

9. You agree that WWF may use without payment, notice or further consent any photographs, videos and other images in which you appear which are taken at an event by the organiser or their suppliers, our employees or any participant or other person attending, in our brochure, website, social network marketing activities or any other relevant promotional material. WWF will not, however, identify anyone by name without their agreement. Should you prefer that WWF do not use any such images in which you may appear which are taken at the event in any promotional materials or if you do not wish to be the subject of any photography, please notify us by emailing challenge@wwf.org.uk

10. WWF will contact you by telephone and email with reference to your application. We will keep you up to date about the event via regular emails and by phone. Occasionally we will write to you about the event and post to you anything we can't email, for example your WWF sports vest.

11. The organiser of the event will normally set a deadline date by which you need to complete the official registration on the organiser's console and therefore only this action will fully secure your place. Should you fail to complete this registration by the set deadline you will lose your place. We are unable to influence the deadline dates set by organisers.

12. For those applying for a guaranteed WWF place we may need to add your details to the third-party event organisers' console in order to officially register you (usually your name, email and telephone). This usually triggers an automated email from them to you requesting you to complete the official registration process. We take no responsibility should you fail to complete this and lose your place in the event.

13. By accepting a place for an event with WWF you are committing to raise a minimum amount of money for our vital conservation work. The amount will be detailed when you sign up. We have a limited number of places so if your circumstances change and you are unable to take part in the event for us then please do let us know as soon as possible (and before registration on the console) so that we are able to offer your place to someone else.

14. I confirm that I am aged 18 or over.
